After this, you will be taken towards banori para by an Engine boat for half a day trip to the floating markets at Sorupkati, floating wood market, beautiful village life, famous floating gardening etc. After that you will be taken to Mongla port by car. In the afternoon, you will be transferred to Khulna town and overnight stay at Khulna.

Day 4: Explore the Kotka - Kochikhali wild life sanctuary (10Km)

Kotka- Kochikhali area is the richest wild life sanctuary of Sundarban. Especially for Geological reason, there is more wildlife recorded than any other part of the Entire Sundarban. Grown up near the sea side, the canal's landscape is exceptional, forest is less thick and more food for all animals and the destiny of tigers are the most here. In the early morning before Breakfast, you will be taken in a country boat tour inside the small canals of Sundarban. Early mornings are the best time for boating and gives the best opportunity to come across exquisite birds such as Kingfisher, Lesser Adjutant, Mangrove Wisher, Purple Sunbird, Sand piper and much more. Animals such as deer, boars, monkeys, lizard, snakes etc come near the canals to drinking the water. After breakfast, get ready to trek in Kotka forest with the permission of the forest office. The forest of Kotka is very interesting. In the ancient times it was used as a salt factory for Portuguese pirates and now the high mound is the shelter for wildlife during floods or heavy rain. This place is called Tiger Den. In the afternoon, you will start cruising towards Tambulbunia Forest Office. BBQ dinner and overnight stay over there. (B/L/D).

Day 5: Flights from Jessor to Dhaka (202Km)

Your day starts early with another thrilling boat trip to the canals and towards Daingmari forest area to see the dolphins. It is a common place for the Ganges dolphins. Then you will visit some fisherman's villagers, visit the interesting temple of Sundarban. After an early lunch disembark from the boat and start driving towards Jessore Airport. You will take the evening flight back to Dhaka. After reaching Dhaka, Our guide will drop you at your hotel.
